

Important Professional Development Policies and Procedures

Center-based and Family Child Care professionals can attain their Child Development Associate (CDA), the entry level national credential, by officially registering with Rutgers Southern Regional. Contact Ingrid Campbell at ingridc@camden.rutgers.edu for more information. Visit the Council for Professional Recognition at www.cdacouncil.org for credential information.

Trainings will center around the following CDA standards:

1. Safety/Health/the Learning Environment
2. Promoting Physical/Intellectual Development
3. Social/Emotional Development
4. Families
5. Program Management
6. Professionalism
7. Observing and Recording Child Development
8. Child Development; Culture

You can access the state's ECE training opportunities from PINJ

<https://www.pinjregistry.org/index.cfm?module=login>. Click on the "Find a Training" site on the left column, search for "Rutgers Southern Regional CCR&R" to access the training calendar, workshop times, locations, and descriptors. Complete the workshop registration and connect with the Registry should you need to cancel your reservation for a training.

All evening trainings are from 6 PM to 8 PM. Please arrive on time; full two-hour training credit cannot be given if a participant is more than 15 minutes late. All participants are required to sign in upon entry.

- Bring light refreshments for yourself.
- Children will not be able to attend workshops due to liability concerns.
- Please come prepared to learn and participate: paper, pen, an open mind.

Unless otherwise specified, the CCR&Rs will host the regional workshops at our respective locations in Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester, and Salem Counties.

Training Cancellation Procedure

Connect to PINJ

<https://www.pinjregistry.org/index.cfm?module=login> to cancel the class you registered to attend within 24 hours.

OR

(if not in the Registry or emergency cancellation):
Call your Rutgers Southern CCR&R office to cancel attendance BEFORE 5 PM on training day.

CCR&R Training Cancellations:

Rutgers Southern Regional CCR&R may cancel trainings for:

1. Low attendance
2. Weather-related concerns
3. Trainer emergency

An email and/or phone call will be sent to REGISTERED providers and a notice will be posted in the respective CCR&R office. Please check your email on the scheduled training day.
